ASTOVE ATOLL

ALPHONSE ISLAND, SEYCHELLES

Welcome to the immaculate ecosystem of Astove Atoll. The atoll holds a large inner lagoon, white sandy beaches, a plethora of bird and fish species, and the awe-inspiring 'Astove Wall' holds impressive sheer drop-offs which makes you feel like you're staring down the Grand Canyon. Intimate and rustic with attentive service the newly renovated Coral House at the Astove atoll caters to only a small number of guests each week with only six double bedroom units available.

RESTAURANTS

THE DINING ROOM

At Astove Coral Lodge, delicious, farm-to-fork dining unfolds against the breath-taking backdrop of the Outer Islands of the Seychelles. The freshest fruits and vegetables from The Farm at Alphonse Island, combined with freshly caught fish from the Indian Ocean ensures a dining experience that captures the essence of the Seychelles' bountiful land and sea. Dine under the jet-black skies, full of sparkling stars on the outdoor pavilion or cosy up indoors in the Dining Room. Guests can enjoy culinary experiences where every meal is a celebration of nature's bounty.

THE BAR

The bar is small and is located within the Dining Room, yet despite its modest size, the atmosphere is enchanting. With a curated selection of beverages, featuring the pride of Seychelles – SeyBrew and Takamaka rum, crafted locally on Mahe. The bar transcends borders, embracing global tastes with renowned international brands like Gordon's Gin, Jack Daniels, and an array of whiskies and spirits. From the refreshing local flavours to the familiar comforts of international classics, this small yet meticulously curated bar captures the essence of Astove Atoll's charm.
