GALLE FACE HOTEL

COLOMBO, WEST-COAST, SRI LANKA

The Galle Face Hotel, established in 1864, is a colonial city hotel facing the famous Galle Face Green in Colombo, Sri Lanka, and is one of the oldest hotels east of the Suez. Combining historic charm with modern luxury, it offers 156 rooms, diverse dining options, a seawater pool, and the iconic Chequerboard sunset spot. Recognised with multiple awards, including "Best Heritage Hotel," it is a cultural landmark showcasing its rich history through a museum and art gallery. Guests can enjoy world-class hospitality and the unique ambiance of this oceanfront gem.

RESTAURANTS

1864 LIMITED EDITION

1864 Limited Edition, gastro-chic restaurant, bar, wine cellar and art gallery located in the iconic Galle Face Hotel.

FIREBEACH

Al fresco to its core with a rustic-chic and laid back design celebrating natural materials and traditional craftsmanship, Firebeach brings right to the centre of Colombo a new concept of Beach Club with a combination of lounging, dining, music and entertainment, all in one experience.

KING OF THE MAMBO

It's time to revel in the nostalgic yet vibrant vibe of Havana – with amazing cocktails, indulgently delicious food and music that will get guests dancing all night long. Open daily from 12 noon to midnight and will be featuring nightly entertainment.

THE VERANDAH

The food offering throughout the day is focused on perfectly executed Ceylonese cuisine, reminiscent of the regional flavours imported by colonial routes, a selection of old and new world wines, along with imported and local beers.
