GOATFELL

NUWARA ELIYA, CENTRAL HIGHLANDS, SRI LANKA

Perched amongst tea bushes amidst the Concordia Estate, high up on a hill near Nuwara Eliya, Goatfell is a luxurious, recently renovated four-bedroom tea bungalow hotel. This former estate manager's bungalow still resonates with the warmth and up country charm of a bygone era. With gourmet food and Butler service, guests can relax on covered verandas, in the warmth of the log fired sitting room or enjoy tea field views from the infinity swimming pool.

FOOD AND DRINK

RESTAURANT

THE DINING ROOM

The kitchen at Goatfell promises locally sourced, freshly cooked food, served in an upcountry fine dining experience. The butlers make guests feel at home by mixing their favourite drinks, serving afternoon tea in the garden and gourmet meals in the cosy indoor dining room or outside on the veranda. Rates are all inclusive, so expect to tuck into a hearty breakfast followed by a 'Planter's Lunch' – a selection of daily curries – before moving onto afternoon tea and later, an a la carte dinner. Snacks and drinks, including favourite tipples, best-enjoyed beside the warm crackling fireplace of the comfortable sitting room, are also included in the daily rate.
