ISHQ TALPE

TALPE, SOUTH-COAST, SRI LANKA

Ishq Talpe is a family owned, informal and bespoke luxury villa set in a remarkable location on the quiet coastline of Talpe (Galle). This beautiful 5-bedroom villa that could accommodate a maximum of 14 guests (adults and children), first came to life in the 1990s, a part of the original fabric of the island's first luxury villas designed by renowned architect, the late Bruce Fell-Smith before undergoing an extensive renovation and upgrade under the guidance of award-winning architect Philip Weeraratne. Today, the villa marries a love for clean design with oceanic hues and brings together all the comforts of a boutique hotel with the privacy and exclusivity of a private villa. Expect characteristics of colonial Dutch heritage, high ceilings, airy spaces in suites and common areas, large king-sized beds for deep slumbers, and low-slung chairs by the courtyard pool for sunbathing. Therapeutic evening massages on the lawn and lazy swims are the perfect activity for taking in the gorgeous Indian Ocean sunsets.
