JADE MOUNTAIN

SOUFRIERE, SAINT LUCIA

An architectural landmark perched above the Anse Chastanet estate in Saint Lucia, defined by its open-walled "sanctuaries" and uninterrupted views of the Pitons and Caribbean Sea. Accommodation is designed as vast, open-plan living spaces where bedroom, lounge, and private infinity pool merge into one, with the fourth wall intentionally absent to fully frame the landscape. Each sanctuary is reached via private bridges, reinforcing a strong sense of seclusion and elevation above the coastline. The experience is deliberately immersive and minimal in distraction, with limited in-room technology and a focus on nature, space, and outlook. Guests also benefit from full access to the wider estate's beaches, dining, and activities. Service is highly personalised with dedicated butler-style support. Best for couples seeking a highly distinctive Saint Lucia stay defined by dramatic design, complete privacy, and one of the Caribbean's most iconic views.
