RESTAURANTS

COCCOLOBA BAR + GRILL

In the mood for a margarita and ceviche with a side of ocean breezes? Say hola to Coccoloba, a mash-up of culinary influences from our own island and coastal Mexico. Here on Grand Cayman, it's rare to find a restaurant situated in the sand — and yet there you are in your swim suit sipping tequila and snacking on the best guacamole you've ever had, watching waves gently crash onto Seven Mile Beach.

AVE

Come to Ave with the whole family — or sneak away for a romantic dinner — to experience fresh local seafood and produce infused into coastal Mediterranean recipes.

AVECITA

The Spanish wood fire restaurant nestled inside Ave restaurant, like a baby bird tucked under its mother's wing, Avecita is Kimpton Seafire Resort's signature dinner-only venue, a theatrical culinary experience showcasing Spanish tapas-inspired dishes.
