KUMU BEACH

BALAPITIYA, SOUTH-COAST, SRI LANKA

Set on Sri Lanka's south-west coast near Balapitiya, this boutique beachfront stay offers a contemporary, understated approach to coastal living. Rooms are bright and minimal, with clean lines, natural textures and floor-to-ceiling openings that frame uninterrupted ocean views. The design is deliberately pared back, allowing the beach and sea breeze to take centre stage. Communal spaces flow easily between pool, terrace and shoreline, creating an unstructured, relaxed rhythm throughout the day. Dining is focused and unfussy, with a short, well-executed menu highlighting fresh seafood and Sri Lankan flavours served in open-air settings overlooking the water. The atmosphere is quiet and adult-leaning, with a strong sense of space and privacy despite its intimate scale. Service is discreet and attentive, supporting a calm, design-led beach stay suited to clients seeking simplicity, style and direct ocean access without resort excess.

FOOD AND DRINK

RESTAURANT

THE RESTAURANT

The gourmet a la carte all-day fusion menu champions fresh fish and seafood, with platters for sharing and smaller, tapas-style dishes for light meals and snacks throughout the day. The long timber dining deck, fringed by lush seas of spider lilies and a verdant lawn, is the venue for sun-dappled breakfasts and evening candlelit meals beneath a ceiling of stars. Yet for that special occasion, why not dine in the garden, beside the pool, on the beach, or even atop one of the garden-edged rooftops for the ultimate private dinner-for-two? The café-style bar is air-conditioned, and ideal for chilled dining during the heat of the day.
