MAVERICK HOTEL MALDIVES

LAAMU ATOLL, MALDIVES

Small-scale surf and dive boutique property in Laamu Atoll offering a more adventurous, locally rooted take on the Maldives rather than a traditional private island resort. Accommodation is in spacious, air-conditioned tented lodges on a beachfront setting, each with open-air bathrooms and private outdoor living space designed to feel close to nature. The experience is built around surfing, diving, and marine exploration, with easy access to uncrowded breaks, a rich house reef, and regular dolphin sightings. Dining is informal and focused on fresh, generous meals served in a beachfront setting. Service is friendly, personal, and hands-on, reflecting a community-connected island stay. Best for active couples, surfers, and divers seeking a more characterful Maldives experience with strong nature focus and a less conventional resort format.

ACCOMMODATIONS

ON THE BEACH LUXURY TENT

Only 25 air-conditioned tented lodges, connected to indoor/outdoor bathrooms, sitting in greenery on a white powdered sand beach with a stunning house reef. Each tent is big enough for four and incredibly spacious for a couple. The tents are beautifully positioned to take advantage of nature and provide privacy. Furnishings are "expedition chic" with a touch of colour. Everything is quality with luxurious cotton linens and towels and king size beds. Everything is here for the most comfortable of stays.

RESTAURANT

THE RESTAURANT

The restaurant is on the beach, so not only will you enjoy not only great food, you may even see a group of dolphins while you are dining. The Lodge's focus is sustainability and buying local wherever possible. The hotel intends to buy only biodegradable packaging and compost them on its own farm, where they grow fruit and vegetables for the restaurant.
