NINE SKIES

DEMODARA, CENTRAL HIGHLANDS, SRI LANKA

Perched in the hills above Ella in Sri Lanka's tea country, this boutique retreat offers a highly personal, design-led stay with a strong sense of place. Suites are individually styled within a restored colonial-era bungalow, blending period character with contemporary touches and framing wide views across the surrounding valleys and railway line. The setting is intimate and elevated, with gardens, terraces and a small infinity pool that encourage slow, scenic living rather than structured activity. Dining is entirely bespoke, focusing on seasonal Sri Lankan flavours and tailored menus served in relaxed, homely surroundings. The atmosphere is quiet and highly attentive, with a small team delivering a genuinely personalised level of service. It suits clients seeking an immersive, slow-paced Sri Lankan experience where landscape, heritage and understated luxury define the stay.

FOOD AND DRINK

RESTAURANT

THE RESTAURANT

The atmospheric restaurant overlooks a beautiful landscaped garden. The butlers are poised to pamper guests in a home from home setting, mixing their favourite drinks for sipping in the sitting room, and serving afternoon tea and freshly cooked gourmet meals to tables inside the bungalow or out on the garden veranda. Rates are all inclusive, so expect to tuck into a hearty breakfast, a 'Planter's Lunch' – a selection of daily curries – afternoon tea and later, an a la carte dinner. Snacks and drinks, including favourite alcoholic tipplers – best enjoyed on the covered terrace or in the cosy sitting room – are also included in the daily rate.
