PARK HYATT ST. KITTS

ST. KITTS ISLAND, SAINT KITTS AND NEVIS

Along the quieter southeast coast of St. Kitts, a refined, low-density resort offering a contemporary, understated take on Caribbean luxury with a strong sense of space and privacy. Accommodation is spacious and well-appointed, many with private pools and views towards Nevis, supported by a considered dining offering and a high-quality spa. The atmosphere is calm and residential in feel, with a focus on relaxation over activity-led programming. Suited to couples and high-end travellers seeking a more secluded, design-led Caribbean stay.

RESTAURANTS

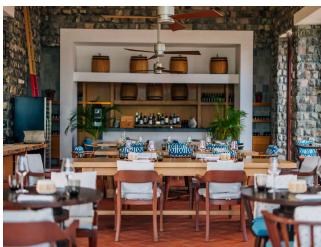

GREAT HOUSE

An all-day dining experience. The architecture of Great House restaurant reflects the grandeur of the houses that once stood at the centre of each estate on St. Kitts. Great House is a luxurious and relaxing setting at the heart of our resort serving breakfast, lunch, dinner and Sunday brunch.

FISHERMAN'S VILLAGE

An 'ocean to table' dining experience on the calm edge of the Caribbean Sea, serving lunch and dinner. Enjoy ocean-front dining for lunch and dinner in a casual setting at Fisherman's Village. Designed to reflect the huts and berths that once lined the St. Kitts coastline, this is one of the best restaurants to enjoy stunning ocean views paired with an eclectic menu of island-inspired foods and freshly caught seafood.

STONE BARN

Exclusive fine dining for adults, serving an exquisite tasting menu. The stone barns on the island of St. Kitts were once used to protect the crops during the wet season on the island. Our Stone Barn offers adult-only dining for dinner and serving food from the hearth.
