RABOT HOTEL FROM HOTEL CHOCOLAT

SOUFRIERE, SAINT LUCIA

Escape for a unique stay in St. Lucia's rainforest and experience first-hand the lush, natural environment cacao trees thrive in. Rabot Hotel is an open-air, boutique resort, comprising of 25 luxury, private lodges, a restaurant and bar, infinity pool and spa. Set in cacao's rainforest home and a UNESCO world heritage site. Overlooking the island's iconic Petit Piton Mountain and set amongst a working organic cacao farm, there's a world of experiences to discover on the Rabot Estate, and beyond. Taste the cuisine, carefully curated with ingredients from the farm, enjoy a calming massage at the Beauté de Cacao Spa, take the complimentary shuttle down to the beach, or soak in sunset views aboard the private boat. Not to be missed, head to the immersive Project Chocolat experience and get hands-on grafting a cacao seedling and making chocolate from scratch while learning all about Hotel Chocolat's sustainable approach to cacao-growing.

FACILITIES

ACCOMMODATIONS

LODGES

Slide open the shutters for inspiring views of the Petit Piton or garden courtyard. The bright and airy 450-square foot Lodge features a king-size, four-poster bed and an indoor seating area beneath a beautiful, pitched wooden roof. An open-air rainforest shower connects guests to nature, while ceiling and standing fans collide with the tropical breezes for an all-natural air-conditioning. Enjoy complimentary extras including Rabot Beauty toiletries, kilner jars of homemade cookies and chocolates, and Hotel Chocolat hot chocolate.

LUXE LODGES

Unfold the doors to the private veranda for dramatic views across the rainforest to the Petit Piton Mountain. The elevated position of the Luxe Lodges and their open-air concept allows guests to benefit from the cooling sea breezes, that are maximised with ceiling and standing fans. After a rewarding day, enjoy the refreshing open-air rainforest shower, then bathe in the sunset views of a UNESCO world heritage site from the veranda while enjoying complimentary extras such as Hotel Chocolat hot chocolate and homemade cookies and truffles.

FOOD AND DRINK

RESTAURANT

RABOT RESTAURANT

A la carte menu serving cacao-cuisine. Rabot Restaurant offers an exclusive cacao cuisine menu, extensively using the cacao grown on Rabot Estate - exploring both its sweet and savoury nature. Sometimes as a spice, sometimes as an infusion - but always with a delicate touch. The restaurant utilises superb local produce found on Saint Lucia - from the huge array of fresh fish and seafood to delicate salad leaves, vegetables and plentiful fruit grown on the estate and locally. The menu is influenced by premium seasonal produce from the region.
