ROSYTH ESTATE HOUSE

KEGALLE, CENTRAL, SRI LANKA

In the lush tea country near Kegalle, a restored colonial-era estate offering an intimate, boutique stay surrounded by forested hills and working plantations. Accommodation is individually designed, blending heritage architecture with contemporary comfort, with a strong focus on space, tranquillity, and personalised service. The atmosphere is quiet and refined, with farm-to-table dining and a strong connection to the surrounding landscape. A natural fit for travellers seeking a characterful inland retreat between Sri Lanka's cultural and highland regions.
