THE RESIDENCE DHIGURAH

GAAFU ALIFU ATOLL, MALDIVES

Stretching across two islands in the Gaafu Alifu Atoll, this resort combines generous scale with a calm, residential feel, linked by one of the Maldives' longest island bridges. Villas are spacious and well-appointed, offering beach and overwater options with direct lagoon access, private pools and a clean, contemporary design focused on comfort and ease. The layout supports both privacy and movement, with bicycles and golf buggies used to navigate the long, green setting. Dining is varied across several restaurants, balancing international dishes with relaxed, open-air settings suited to longer stays. The surrounding atoll delivers strong snorkelling and diving, with clear waters and regular marine life sightings across an unspoilt reef system. Service is attentive yet unobtrusive, creating a smooth, unhurried stay that suits clients looking for space, flexibility and a quietly polished Maldives experience.
